Lol, why you break deh ipad luna?

[image]

So I decided to do a lazy mini ship comic of LunaTabbs OC and mine Dustin. I will draw something way better of it tomorrow

Sorry if the markings don't match ehr Luna ^^;

More facts about meh!

So this is not a drawing, the next drawing will be drawing someone an OC but anyway. Hopefully this makes you know me a bit better.

1. I'm very self conscience then you think.

2. I don't decide between online friends or real life friends. I believe both cam equally become friends if you know what your doing

3. I began watching anime I'm 2013, and even then my first anime was full metal alchemist, I began drawing anime by 2014-2016

4. My Sexuality is Demisexual/Straight. which means I need to devolpe a friend relationship that's strange before I can even think about a relationship.

5. Currently I don't like the school I go to. They are very strict upon girls. Guys are let off easy. Plus for girls who wanna play football are treated like a team member

6. Some may be focused in medals and athletics. But personal I could care less. I only do athletics if required for school. Other than that I'm a nerd. I'm not a genius like most. Just a nerd.

If you guys have any questions please ask!

Anyone use Paint tool sai?

Ok guys, Cloude can not take it anymore XD If anyone who uses paint tool sai and knows EXACTLY how much it cost in US money gets a free picture. I'm legitly serious. I really want to get it, and saving up to do so. And I really want more realistic digital art instead of lined thin scratchy sketches. So for those who can help get whatever drawing you want. please, even if it's a request. This is the only time I'm giving out one request to those who can help. And please make sure your words are accurate ^^;

Thanks, Cloudey!

Sketches in class!!

[image]

So here are some sketches I did in class!

Which one reminds you of a friend kff of Wattpad. Pick a friend. And how you gusy let and what you feel of them.

The cat that I choose is mustache cat, it reminds me of my sister emndem02

Em and i met by me being a huge fan of her art And wanted to meet her. So i PMed her..at first I felt we weren't going to be close because I felt I would Screw up things. but, after our first RP and first ship. We became greatly deep caring sisters.

Em is amazing, sweet, and juat plain amazing. She always cheers me up. And..i have cried one time at how I thought I couldn't achieve something. She stuck by me like I do her. And if I never met em..i would never improve in anime. Work to talk to others..or just be the Cloudey you know.

Another cat I chose was the last chibi cat with wings. The cat reminds me of Jaywing2003 I actually just recently talked to her. She is the best sister I could have and glad to be friends with. She has an amazing Accent. Sweet caring nature. And glad we became friends ever since we met. Infact we met when she PMed me one time.

What do you choose

Learn more about my sign

(so I found this on a website and ita very accurate about my personality. So i know you guys don't know too much so this will help you. I hope you like long paragraphs guys)

Libra Strength Keywords:

- Diplomatic
- Graceful
- Peaceful
- Idealistic
- Hospitable

Libra Weakness Keywords:

- Superficial
- Vain
- Indecisive
- Unreliable

Libra and Independence:

Libras like to be around other people, they are all about partnerships and groups. They are happiest when other people are around and when other people are doing their work. They are lazy but like posh surrounding and nice decor. These two extremes could strike a balance and the Libra living on his own could either have a very messy place or a very intricately decorated place. They can be independent, they have the intelligence and the full capability within but would a Libra rather co-exist/depend on others.

Libra and Friendship:

Libras love excitement, new situations, adventure and the unusual. They make friends with people from all walks of life and they are always up to something new and exciting with enthusiasm. Libras are great at getting along with people, everyone likes a Libra. They are all about partnerships and groups, they are the glue that hold a group together because they are the ones responsible for keeping harmony and peace. Libras have mastered the art of relationships, not just romantic but business, personal, and family relationships just to name a few. No one is able to see another person's point of view better then a Libra.

Libra and Business:

Libras dislike hard work, they are lazy when it comes to getting their hands dirty and doing the work themselves. Fortunately, their intuitive instincts are good at telling them where money can come from. They can think up great business ideas that are original and bound for success, they can initiate the idea but they need someone else to do the work. Libras make good business partners but not good business people on their own. Libras have potential of being a good leader with their diplomatic ways, but but they are just too lazy to do the hard work required and climb a corporate ladder. A good way for Libra to become wealthy is through artistic endeavors. They can be painters, interior decorators, actors or writing screenplays or composing. These are great ideas because it incorporates Libra's hobby with a moneymaking venture.

Libra and Temperament:

Libras have excellent instincts and intuition, most of the time they do not trust them enough. Libras are likely to be underachievers due to the easygoing attitude. This does not mean that they are necessarily lazy, they just make do with whatever comes their way. They do not want anything badly enough to fight for it. The only time that a Libra will usually stand up is if a situation is unfair, the only time a Libra will definitely stand up is if they feel something involving them is unfair. They need their respect and their fairness, after all, Libra has done so much for other people, it deserves at least fairness, right? When this issue comes into play, Libra becomes courageous.

Libra Deep Inside:

They are also likely to hide or bend their own true feelings in order to bring peace with a group and to make others like them.

Sometime this results in them not really knowing what their true feelings are because they are trying to make everyone happy. Other people can see this and Libras have earned themselves a reputation for being indecisive, they simply do not want to hurt anyone's feelings or cause disorder or friction in a situation. This spills over inside the person and many times, Libras have difficulty making decisions. Inside, the Libra is very insecure, they suffer from a lack of self confidence, they are always searching for something to complete them. This is another reason why they are social butterflies, it is an unconscious attempt to find the missing peace through other people. By trying to appease other people all the time, Libras don't really know who they are inside. Libras desperately need love and approval, they will do the favors that people ask and and have a hard time saying 'no' or 'I'm too busy' in order to prove how nice they are, this gradually builds up resentment and negative self esteem issues inside. Libra's indecisiveness is caused by fear, their fear that a wrong decision will make everything come crashing down around them and cause turmoil in their lives. Life is not like that and the Libra that acknowledges the fact that life has ups and downs will be less emotionally wound up, not so hard on themselves and as a result, they will be a much happier person.

Libra in a Nutshell:

Libras are the diplomat of the zodiac. They are able to put themselves in other's shoes and see things through another person's point of view. They are the ones that always want to make things right and have balance and harmony in their life, their surroundings and the lives of the people close to them. They have captivating charm, elegant taste and they are easy to like due to their eager-to-please, easygoing nature. In return for a Libra's amazing ability to be a good listener, sooth and calm people, they expect admiration. Libras will gather a group of people, everyone will become friends then the Libra will be in the center of the group. They like the attention and the admiration for the people that they have brought together. Libras are very intelligent, they often hide this inside their easygoing exterior. They express their intelligence through creativity, most are involved in some sort of artistic or creative pursuit. Many people overlook just how intelligent a Libra actually is. When others see a Libras wide range of interests and hobbies, their intelligence and creativity is more then obvious. Libras love variety and different situations. They welcome change. Libras love luxury. They will spend lots of money and surround themselves with beautiful things and they seem to be constantly fussing over their appearance. They love anything upscale and classy. Libras work hard to please others, this they do an others find them incredibly captivating.

Learning more about the signs!

(so, I did one for my sister emndem02! Who's sign is cancer. And thia makes me cry because it does suite her in many ways. I'm sorry it just makes me wanna hug and thank her for everything)

Cancer Strength Keywords:

- Loyalty
- Dependable
- Caring
- Adaptable
- Responsive

Cancer Weakness Keywords:

- Moody
- Clingy
- Self-pitying
- Oversensitive
- Self-absorbed

Cancer and Independence:

Cancer is the astrology sign that is packed full of contradictions so when it comes to independence, they possibly can or can not be independent. On one side, they have the perseverance and drive to do what needs to be done, they are self-sufficient and do not need to depend on other people for the material and physical things in life. On the other hand, they depend on people for emotional support and encouragement. A Cancer that is not fully self-actualized will need the constant support of others and will not be very independent but the Cancer that is 'evolved' and has properly harnessed their emotional issues will be wildly successful as an independent human being. They crave attention and comfort from other people and they are happiest when they have a small, close knit group of friends or family.

Cancer and Friendship:

Cancer is extremely loyal to those who appreciate and support them, they are the nurturer of the zodiac and will protect and cherish the person for a long time. One of the greatest things about Cancer is their ability to make others feel good about themselves and loved. This is because instead of doing this for themselves, they project this onto other people. This is a positive cycle because in making others feel nurtured, wanted and loved, they in return feel good for making someone feel good. Other people can lean on and depend on cancer, they will listen to people's problems and help them however they will rarely express their own deep feelings to anyone. People who want to share deep emotional thoughts and opinions with a Cancer might feel that the scales are tipped on one side for cancer will rarely reveal it's true deep feelings. A friend of Cancer is usually a lifelong devoted friend that can be trusted.

Cancer and Business:

Once cancer resolved their emotional issues such as shyness and insecurity, the powerful character will shine though, there is practically nothing they can't do. They have incredible perseverance and will stand up for what they believe in. With their strong intuition, sensitivity, powers of observation and intelligence, they will have great success in anything they undertake. They are excellent business people and investors because of their intuitive and psychic ability and their creative forward thinking mind, they are able to predict future trends. They attract wealth very well and know where to invest. Money and financial well being is very important to Cancer and this can help their drive in business. They need financial security and if they allow themselves to properly focus their energy and do not allow their emotions to over take them, they are more then capable of obtaining their financial goals and being incredibly successful business people.

Cancer Temperament:

They are complex, fragile, unpredictable and temperamental and need constant support and encouragement, more then any other astrology signs, Cancer needs to be needed. Even when all needs are satisfied, they can be irritable and cranky. They have an uneasy, delicate temperament. The contradictory nature of Cancer gives their temperament the wild mood swings and possible temper tantrums. They are easily offended and will sulk and wallow in self pity for a long time when they get hurt.

Cancer Deep Inside:

It is difficult for cancer to open up and have a close emotionally fulfilled relationship with someone because they are so closed off emotionally and physically to the world. This is driven by their fear of trust, Cancer has a difficult time trusting people. This causes built up anger and resentment inside, the contradictory nature really takes a toll on them and they can have a negative outlook on life, thinking that life is just too hard and miserable. This is unfortunate because when good experiences are to be had, they are skeptical of people and their surroundings and they experience tunnel vision due to their depressed outlook and they miss the nice things and happy experiences in life that make it worth living. In addition to lack of trust for people, Cancer is deeply sensitive and easily hurt, this is other reason why they have their defense shell in place, to avoid being hurt by others. Cancer lives in the past. They hold past events close to them and often dwell on the past. They have to learn to let go and live in the present instead of spending their time being sick with nostalgia. Cancer has a lot of emotional issues to deal with but once they overcome this large hump of shyness and insecurity, there is practically nothing they can't do. With their strong intuition, sensitivity, powers of observation and intelligence, they will have great success in anything they undertake. Cancer is constantly feeling, feelings and emotions are hallmarks of this sign and this is the root of their problems, human beings are not as evolved in the emotional area and this is where cancer gets the brunt of their problems. They are the ones who have to cope with their strong feelings more so then any other sign. Once properly harnessed, there is nothing that is this powerful astrology sign can not accomplish. Harmony is very important to Cancer, it keeps them happy. Conflict of any kind causes great distress. Deep inside, Cancer is a very powerful sign, they have the ability to stand up for what they think is right and they have lots of perseverance and can be fine on their own provided they don't let their emotions get the better of them and have the stability they need. They are not fond of change but they have the ability to do what needs to be done, they are not pushovers or lazy people.

Cancer in a Nutshell:

Cancer is a mysterious sign, filled with contradictions. They want security and comfort yet seek new adventure. They are very helpful to others yet sometimes can be cranky and indifferent. Cancer has a driving, forceful personality that can be easily hidden beneath a calm, and cool exterior. The crab is Cancer's ruling animal and it suits them well, they can come out of their shell and fight but they can also hide in their shell of skitter away back into the depths of the ocean. They are very unpredictable. With cancer, there is always something more that meets the eye, for they are always partially hidden behind the shell. They are a have a deep psyche and intuitive mind that is hidden from the world. Cancer is deeply sensitive and easily hurt, this might be why they have their defense shell in place, to avoids being hurt by others. They are nurturers so they surround themselves with people, whom after a while can offend or hurt a cancer without even knowing they did so, therefore Cancer's protective shell keeps them safe from hurt. They are complex, fragile, unpredictable and temperamental and need constant support and encouragement, more then any other astrology signs, Cancer needs to be needed. When cancer gets the support it needs, it has a tremendous amount to offer in return. When cancer gets offended, they tend to sulk instead of confronting the persons face to face. This needlessly prolongs the pain and suffering. Cancer is very possessive, not just with material possessions but with people as well. Cancer will always want to stay in touch with old friends and anyone who has ever been close to them, because it is easier to maintain a friendship then attempt to learn to trust a new person. It is easier this way for them emotionally. If you befriend a Cancer, you will stay friends for a long time. Cancer makes the perfect mother, this is the sign that represents motherhood. They have unconditional love and caring more so then any other astrology sign. Cancer are very intuitive. Most of the psychics of the world are Cancer astrology signs. They have an excellent memory and are very observant and can read people very well. They can usually tell of other people's intentions are good or not. Never dupe a Cancer, they can see your motives.

Cancer has a lot of emotional issues to deal with but once they overcome this large hump of shyness and insecurity, there is practically nothing they can't do. With their strong intuition, sensitivity, powers of observation and intelligence, they will have great success in anything they undertake.

His is Lectra!

I has improved in my humans! Yay! Anywho. Lectra lives in a dimension where beings control her workd. Kinda like aliens you could say. Im drawing the aliens now if I could pull it off

Mini past!

Lectra watched her parents get slaughtered in front of her and was practically used as a test subject and slave at a very young age. I'm talking 5 years old! Anywho. One day a band of rebellioners ransacked the place she was being held at. Same with any other hostages and joined the group. They taught her to survive and that life was a killed or be killed world. That you couldn't run.. nor hide.

(I can't wait to out this in the RP emndem02, I also wanna thank you for giving me the inspiration to ge better at my huamns and other backstories)

Akritiss aliens

[image]

So if you don't know how to pronounce this its [Uh-Cry-Tiss] aliens.

These are the beings the humans I'm Lectra's dimension have to fight

This is just a head shot but it gives a better picture. Definitely wouldn't want that thing in your room XD

(Hopefully this helps emndem02)

Azul!

[image]

Here is a present for WingsOfFury.

His/Her Of Azul. I used the ref that they made so here (i assume is a he) he/she is!

What are used was a 0.7 mechanical pencil, prisma colors, and white gel pen to do the highlights in the eyes

Cresent's family/past info

[image]

Welp, here it is, a better picture of cresent's family.

Black and white freckled She-cat: Aleraina [Al-Ur-Ain-Uh] (also known as Ally)

Green, purpled eye Tom: Velrix (this is short for Veltrum)

Female Black, green freckled kit running: Cresent

Tom, green, multicolored eyes:Nexus (also known as Nex)

So, cresent actually had a little Sister but died because of a sickness.

Cresent's family were rouges and didn't want to be in a clan at the time. For the area they were in there were a lot of humans and so one took them in and took care of them.

One day the human died, leaving the family to live on their own. Soon after Aleriana got sick and slowly got weak to the point she died next spring. Leaving Velrix to raise their kits. They were heading towards a place where a clan lived. Velrix thought it be better to raise his kits in a clan.

He left both Cresent and Nexus alone to hunt, only to find a flood was nearby.

Velrix ran to find his kits after noticing water rise. He leaped to grab his kits as water smashed through the forest. He luckily climbed upa tree in time to put Cresent and Nexus in the tree. But sadly had a loose grip and fell in the flooded forest water.

Both kits screamed for their father, Nexus, panicked and began trying to find a way down. He slipped and fell into the rushing water leaving cresent to go after him.

With a hard smack, she fell unconscious. Soon waking up to find her father nowhere to be found and not breathing brother. Leaving her alone to fend for herself..

Here ya go Eclipse!

How to draw a cat tutorial!

[image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image] [image]

Start off with the base

Then ears and back fur try not to make it too fluffy unless you want it that way

Began shaping the paws and adding chest fur

Start devolving the legs and paws

Yay! You did your legs now ad the eye. Start it with a curved line

Add eye lashes

At a pupil for the eye and a line in the middle for the eye

Be sure to have a tiny acute angle! On the nose

Yay nose is done!

Now start the tail!

Yay tail!

Begin the other eye, no remember perspective!

There we go!

Tiny smile!

Chin! Now slowly begin outlining

Now for the final! If your curious on the eyes look closley to the next one!

There we go! Hope this was fun!

And to answer that yes, I do have a main idol. I have very many actually but the main ones I look to help me increase my drawings and work me at a hard rate has to be CraziOtaku200 and emndem02! I have many more i can say but I don't want peeps going off and asking 'why aren't i an idol to you' I am specific on my idols not because of being nice but at the jard work they put daily in their work!

Just Cloude's brother cut out or soon to be

Time We make a stand

So as you all know we have had many art thieves this week, this is the fourth one this week to hear about (I was almost a victim of one if I didn't notice what they were doing) and just as every hard working artist this is ticking me off! And its time we show these art thieves we are done with their 'making fun of OUR or OTHER' artist art then claim it as theirs. So now we are gonna show these art thieves this is a community! All artist need to officially mark their art or try and tag some kind of protest peeps!
#WeDontAllowArtThieves! spread it around

No..this isn't happening!!

[image] [image]

So here we go again with the same art theif that keeps stealing Hurri's art look at this

She stole my OC...Cloude came from my Devolpment and it took me FOREVER to come with her designs! And the fake hurri is claiming her and stealing The real Hurri's art!! Guess what? Not happening!!

Present

This is a present for Hurri_The_Runaway to get better

A decision was made..

So with hurri getting her art stolen so much I made a decision..i can't watch her get her art stolen so I am giving my art up. Thats why when I gave hurri the gift to make her feel better I knew the fake one would take my art.. atleast Hurri_The_Runaway will no longer be hurt..or atleast have art taken. I love her too much. Please understand I rather my art be taken then the rest of yours crap i need to tell ya guys

[image]

So I can tell many are against the give up my art idea ^^ but that's how I feel will fix it I believe in my own ideas but I decided on something I was scared to tell you but I wanna stop doing art on here. This isn't failure, this isn't being a coward. But it just shows how easily online stuff can get taken and i wanna grow to be a digital gaming artist and don't need that,dtuff then. Si no more tutirsks, no more Eclipse's moon ect..i feel very unsafe about it. Probably delete my stuff tomorrow. But please understand I wanna hold onto this stuff for my furure career and I also can't have others take it. Glad I inspired you guys.

Thanks for understanding! Love ya guys~ oh tea hehe to get the subject changed I went to a festival that's why half the day I wasn't available

Guy balancing a chainsaw on chin woo!

Anxiety this past week

So heads up, imma keep my art on here. And imma just tell you guys why I have almost left or wanted to delete my book. When I joined I knew there were art thieves gonna be on here I want too worried though. But with this past week my brain has been all over the place trying to make a decision to leave or stay its always been an on and off think. But mostly I have been thinking why you guys like my art. So many on here so better. My anime is just there, anyone can improve in it just as the others. Personally to myself and how I feel About my art I feel it's crappy, needs more improvement. thats why I draw everyday and post everyday. In really sorry for getting you guys worried it thinking I may not care. Have a good morning, evening, or night depending on where ya live

New OC (Creep warning)

[image]

So this is Penetra [Pen-Et-Tra]emndem02

She is a sleep demon. So for starters she is a an experiment that failed and was shut down once she became too dangerous. 50 years later some idiot released her from her capsule. She roams the night feasting upon those in their sleep. She starts off with just a simple nightmare, then it turns into your fears, last stage is where you eventually go insane and end up killing yourself in your dream by this time you have slept for a full 24 hours lol not what the person you wanna see while you sleep. She is mainly after Zero if em knows what I'm talking about. She hopes to capture him and find the missing piece to truely awaken her demon. That's as far as I go!

Tagged!! woop

[image]

I was tagged by BriZTheRebel so leh do dis!

1. I hate nuts

2. I don't know that far in my family history

3. The best drawing I ever did was in 2nd grade and was based close to a made up silly character from cat in the hat

4. I am Christian and proud to be as well!

5. I am Straight and Love being so. I also believe those of other sexualities should love who they want!

6. I am very shy when meeting new people but eventually loosen up

7. I am not lesbian. Most friends like to lay on me because I'm warm but other then that I'm not I'm straight

8. I have always wanted to go to Britain and Canada LOVE ANY WHO LIVE THERE I WANNA HUG YA!

9. This is CloudeMoon's three year of development anniversary! Woop woop!

10. I see anyone as family! That's why all are called bros and sisters

11. I hate nail polish, make up, and anything too girly. Jeans and a hoodie are good enough for me

12. I'm a huge dog lover! But also don't mind cats. I had a bad past with one that scratch me though and i feel uncomfortable at times because of anxiety ^^;

13. I do not like Hungar games or divergent. I do like maxe Runner though and have never read an official warrior cats book except one of those minor ones talking about codes. I'm not a huge fan of warriors to be honest but I love drawing cats!

As for the tag, imma not do it, too lazy!

Alec (hotness alot ladies!)

[image] [image]

So DeerFly has an OC she RP's with named Alec and i just had to draw him so I referenced off of this

This drawing is copyrighted to DeerFly and doesn't belong ti me but her only. Once again it was used as a reference.

Now for those who I know are probably drooling XD and no,i don't know how I draw my guys so attractive I guess I just do. Anyway here is Alec

Dat hair was fun to do!!

How i personally feel!

So I was looking at something online and well I kinda noticed something that feels really personal to me and its..do people care about straights anymore? Now I don't want a argument on this but personally its very hard for me to say 'I love you're sometimes. To show my ahead scenerarios lemme show ya

My friends and i sit at a table

Friend 1: guys I have a girl friend!

Friends talk smiling

Me: oh congrats dude!! Who be the lucky person?

Friend: lol you'll see, so Cloude do you have a crush on anyone?

Me:....umm..no..i don't like anyone. I dont exactly find anyone attractive at the moment ^^;

Friend 2: dating Anyone?

Me: nope.

Now I k ow your thinking what the heck cloude this has nothing to do with this! Well lemne break it down to ya. I feel I'm never gonna find anyone because of my skin. I do see many mixed couples and alot of racism is going around towards black people. Yes, I am black. So of course I have never known what it's like to love. Yes, I have had a crush. And they have on me. But when your crush likes ya for a day then moves on you sonetines get anxiety and wonder what's wrong with me.

Yes, I have wish to never be here on earth before or atleast wonder what it's like not to and sometimes I feel I'm never going to find anyone because I'm black. People don't find them attractive for some reason some do though of course. Am I not attractive? That's all I had to rant on hehe ^^;

Free outline!

[image]

Here is a fre outline anyone is able to use if they are not a big drawer and more of a color person you can use this for your OC please say claims to who drew it are mine. I have been having to say that alot

Jay has already draw FrostHeart but I dunno if she colored it but anyway here is GreyMist. And fun little contest! [image]

Guys this is real! You can ask many others who are posting on this! Sorry watty glitched so i reposted it

Daily stress of Cloude(Rant)

[image]

I'm so sorry to rant this on you guys but I thought it be a time that I let out my feelings towards you all on how I feel on things.

Rant 1: I love how many say my art is amazing and has inspired them. But I have met some who say my art is better than there's and that they can't draw. Well lemme tell you something! I almost quit drawing because of how bad I was. I got frustrated easily and thought I could never be like my grandpa! So I stopped for two years straight. And do you know how hard it was to go back to drawing what I did? Forever. All you guys put there saying your art is crap! Well it's not ok! Art can be a skill to anyone you just gotta find the right style and patience!

Rant 2: I get very pressured when I'm asked to RP but.. I've always been scared to tell those my RPing style is using others OC's now I don't steal them but in my mind when you RP you should be free. emndem02 and i RP and she uses my OC's and i her's and because of so we have had emotional times in our RP infact its made me closer to saying I'd never wanna let her go..never wanna lose her..and if I ever got in a fight would regret every word. I damn love her! And im sorry im such an idiot sometimes and probably rush her and can't do anything right.. because I'll never be like her..

Rant 3: its so hard when you get guilty at every minute someone needs help. Personal the best way to torture me ia fircjng me to bear those suffer. On watty I practically hold myself screaming to why I can't help..it's as if my brain must constantly work to help them. And then when I think about all those friends I probably let down on here..some i might have hurt..it makes me wonder why I try..why must I be around these screams to help them and all I can do is comfort them only to lead back in a worse situation. I still wanna help Coyotesli I'm just gonna say it. But i love him. All of you hating on him.. then hate me too. I Love him ok! I love him till the day I die and will do anything for him..anything for _Shadow_14! Anything for my big brother LordPheniox...

Rant 4: this is the last one but sometimes, I wonder how come I'm such a failure. It hurts to keep everything bottled in. I feel like I don't fit in that well in my school. Everyone finding love. I don't have one lol probably never will with this nerdy brain. But I wonder why I'm different. How come I feel pain from others and it hurts me. Is there something wrong with me? Is there something wrong with a guy not liking that?

Well umm..i guess that's it. Love ya!

To Jay

[image]

So this is to someone I never knew felt this way. And it's probably my fault for not being aware but this broke me a ton

Jaywing2003 I know you wknt comment or PM anyone but I know you can read so this is what imma tell you.

Your not those things, you'll never be those things. I've e had those voices in my head! I mean I even cut myself.. before I joined watty obviously im never doing anything so stupid again but...is it me that caused this to you..am I not there for you enough.. WHY DON'T YOU UNDERSTAND THOSE VOICES KNOW NOTHING ABOUT YOU! I KNOW ENOUGH THAT MY JAY WOUKD NEVER SAY THIS! EVER! YOUR NAME..YOUR NAME IS SOMETHING I'LL NEVER HAVE I CARE ABOUT YOU AND I DON'T CARE IF YOU DONT COMMENT..even though I know your in darkness there is a cloude there, holding her paw/hand out to you saying 'lets leave this place..let's..go somewhere safe.. where you dont have to be scared..

I'm so sorry I failed you..i don't want people to be like me.. EVER! It's hard ok..i don't have it easy Jay. If you think my life is easy.

Is hearing your frankly sure in bed easy? Crying yourself to sleep at his funeral Easy! Hiding things in your mind no one will understand easy? NO!

Jay I just want you to understand I love you.. that's all I want..

I just can't do this anymore..I've already been told I'm just Black and White..that's all I'll ever be..just..i want thus pain to stop..so bad..im sorry I can't do anything right to help..

Gonna be gone for awhile..

Welp, I'm just gonna straight up so I'm not updating for. Awhile. Msy stop drawing for a bit and just gonna leave my artbook on here for you guys. Im done ^^ have a wonderful day!

This is what im gonna do

So i thought leaving was vinna over do it. But with all the stress i get helping people I still need a break so I will be gone for about three days. Just to relax to myself and do as I please. Im sorry with all this mess I'm putting on you guys but have decided I will leave later in the future. Right now I know the time isn't right but later in the future will be..but if there is one thing I hope for in the future is tk have atleast one of my pictures out on Devinart so people can see it..thats my wish atleast. Thank you. Probably my break wilk start tomorrow because man..i have request
